

FORM T-1: TRAINING COURSE SUMMARY SHEET	V1	NORPLAN
--	----	--

Macintosh HD3:Users:sveinstoveland:Dropbox:Hydrogeology Afghanistan:Training_capacitybuilding:Course 4.13
 Cartography II:1 Administration:Summary Sheet 4.13 Cartography 2014.03.17.docx

Course title:		Course no 4.13
Introduction to Cartography II		Date prepared: 17/03/2014
Training purpose	To provide GIS users with advanced training in the design of map legends, labelling and layout.
Target group	Education level: (degree/ technical etc): Participants should have reasonable skills in using ArcGIS 9 or above (preferably version 10) and must be GIS users. They should have completed Course 4.9 Introduction to Cartography I	National / Provincial GIS technical people
Course details:	Course language(s) Duration(days): 2 Planned course location(s): Kabul	English and National Languages No. participants/ course: max 10 Responsible presenter: Mr. Andreas de Jong Professor Zarinkhail	Theoretical /practical/training? Theoretical (0%) & Practical (100%) Hand-outs to be prepared by: Presenters
Summary syllabus	Day 1: - Practical: Review of key lessons learnt during previous course (Cartography I) - Practical: Colours & Legends. Cartographic representations. Day 2: - Practical: Cartographic representations. - Practical: Advanced labelling using the MAPLEX engine - 2 nd Review of completed Faryab Maps.
Training equipment required	- Personal computers: one for each participant. Participants can either use training computers or have their own laptops. - Software: ArcGIS 10/10.1 student or trial licenses
Training material	Presentations to be prepared by trainers. Practical sessions will use Afghan data.
Field/ practical training.	Preparations needed, responsible officer(s) Course presenters
Prepared by	Andreas de Jong, International trainer and Zarinkhail, GIS/MIS Adviser		